OPENING HYMN

“An Easter Celebration” - Praise Singers - Featuring Jacob Anderson and Christian Perry, trumpets, with “Christ the Lord is Risen Today”

Christ the Lord is Risen Today

Christ the Lord is Ris’n today, Al—le—lu—ia!
Earth and heav’n in chorus say; Al—le—lu—ia!
Raise your joys and triumphs high, Al—le—lu—ia!
Sing, ye heav’ns, and earth reply: Al—le—lu—ia!

Lives again our glorious King, Al—le—lu—ia!
Where, O death, is now thy sting? Al—le—lu—ia!
Dying once He all doth save, Al—le—lu—ia!
Where thy victory, O grave? Al—le—lu—ia!

Love’s redeeming work is done, Al—le—lu—ia!
Fought the fight, the battle won, Al—le—lu—ia!
Death in vain forbids Him rise, Al—le—lu—ia!
Christ has opened paradise, Al—le—lu—ia!

Sing we to our God above, Al—le—lu—ia!
Praise eternal as His love; Al—le—lu—ia!
Praise Him, all ye heav’nly host, Al—le—lu—ia!
Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, Al—le—lu—ia!

PRAYER OF THE DAY

All: God of mercy, we no longer look for Jesus among the dead, for he is alive and has become the Lord of life. Increase in our minds and hearts the risen life we share with Christ, and help us to grow as your people toward the fullness of eternal life with you, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

GOSPEL ACCALAMATION

All: Alleluia! Christ, our paschal lamb, has been sacrificed. Therefore, let us keep the feast. Alleluia!

SCRIPTURE – Luke 24: 1–32

But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they came to the tomb, taking the spices that they had prepared. They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, but when they went in, they did not find the body. While they were perplexed about this, suddenly two men in dazzling clothes stood beside them. The women were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, ‘Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen. Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, that the Son of Man must be handed over to sinners, and be crucified, and on the third day rise again.’ Then they remembered his words, and returning from the tomb, they told all this to the eleven and to all the rest. Now it was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them who told this to the apostles. But these words seemed to them an idle tale, and they did not believe them. But Peter got up and ran to the tomb; stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths by themselves; then he went home, amazed at what had happened.

The Walk to Emmaus

Now on that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem, and talking with each other about all these things that had happened. While they were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near and went with them, but their eyes were kept from recognizing him. And he said to them, 'What are you discussing with each other while you walk along?' They stood still, looking sad. Then one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answered him, 'Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have taken place there in these days?' He asked them, 'What things?' They replied, 'The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, and how our chief priests and leaders handed him over to be condemned to death and crucified him. But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things took place. Moreover, some women of our group astounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning, and when they did not find his body there, they came back and told us that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who said that he was alive. Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but they did not see him.' Then he said to them, 'Oh, how foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have declared! Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and then enter into his glory?' Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things about himself in all the scriptures.

As they came near the village to which they were going, he walked ahead as if he were going on. But they urged him strongly, saying, 'Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over.' So he went in to stay with them. When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him; and he vanished from their sight. They said to each other, 'Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?'

"Alleluia! Sing to Jesus" #392 Red Hymnal V 1 & 3

APOSTLES' CREED – PAGE 12* – Red Hymnal

The Apostles' Creed

believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of Heaven and Earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord,

Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,

Born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate,

Was crucified, died, and was buried; He descended to the dead.

On the third day He rose again; He ascended into Heaven,

He is seated at the right hand of the Father,

And He will come to judge the Living and the Dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,

The communion of Saints, the forgiveness of sins,

The resurrection of the body and the Life Everlasting.

Amen.

The Lord's Prayer
Our Father who art in heaven,
hallowed be Thy name,
Thy kingdom come,
Thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.
