PRAYER OF THE DAY:

All: O God, on this day you open the hearts of your faithful people by sending into us your Holy Spirit. Direct us by the light of that Spirit, that we may have a right judgment in all things and rejoice at all times in your peace, through Jesus Christ, your Son and our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

SCRIPTURE - JOHN 20:19-23

Jesus Appears to the Disciples

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors were locked where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, “Peace be with you.” After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.” When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained.”

SERMON/DISCUSSION: PASTOR CASEY SUGDEN

HYMN OF THE DAY

“Like the Murmur of the Dove’s Song” #403 Red ELW

APOSTLES’ CREED - PAGE 127

*I believe in God,
the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
I believe in Jesus Christ, God’s only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
He descended to the dead;
on the third day He rose again;
He ascended into heaven,
He is seated at the right hand of the Father;
and He will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.*

OFFERING PRAYER

WORDS OF INSTITUTION/LORD'S PRAYER

*Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name,
Thy kingdom come,
Thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.*

Memorial Day Tribute

In loving memory of General Robert W. Cone, whose life was marked by courage, service, strength, and perseverance. His leadership and dedication inspired countless lives, and his legacy continues far beyond his military rank.

With pride and love,

Ellen Kohls

Proud Sister-in-Law of Robert W. Cone

The four stars had barely settled on his shoulders when the diagnosis came: stage 4 metastatic prostate cancer.

Just months after becoming a four-star general and commander of U.S. Army Training and Doctrine Command in 2011, Robert W. Cone faced the battle that rank, experience, and power could not shield him from.

Born in Manchester, New Hampshire, Cone graduated from West Point in 1979 and spent decades rising through the Army's toughest assignments. He served in Desert Storm, led major training reforms at Fort Irwin, commanded efforts in Afghanistan, guided Fort Hood through the aftermath of the 2009 mass shooting, and helped oversee the transition out of Iraq.

He became known not just for leadership, but for adaptation — pushing the Army to prepare soldiers for the realities of modern warfare and improvised explosive devices.

Then cancer changed everything.

After decades preparing others for worst-case scenarios, Cone suddenly had to live inside one himself. He underwent clinical-trial therapy, continued serving until 2014, and later retired with his wife Jill to Shawano, Wisconsin. He died in 2016 at age 59.

Robert W. Cone's legacy was never about glamour or rank alone. It was about endurance, grit, and the refusal to quit — even when facing the final battle of his life.
